London Rain

Flowing, the rain keeps tumbling down,
Falling, the leaves are turning brown,
Knowing I'd better get inside
Knowing, yet staying still and quiet

Rain falling down
Tears, washed by the raindrops,
Fears inside my heart,
Doubts tearing me apart...

Strong, yet so weak,
Minds led by illusions,
I fall...

Lights that sparkle and touch the ground, they fall...
Hearts, touched by the glow of the falling lights, awaking,

Smile and playing
Play and failing
Hope and straying
Might and standing down,
Falling down...
Wounds washed by the rainstorms..

Rains are flowing
Time is going
Smile when falling,
Rainbow's reaching from above
