

CONTROL FREAK

Ha, ha...

If you screw with me, I don't let go that easy

If I see you go bad, I'm on the next flight.

I am no longer on your side,

but I am a sinner too or just a little snide.

I'm no an angel. I am a sinner.

I'm all colours of the sky

Shades of light and shades of dark.

I am selfish & weak, and a bit of a snark.

Never, never, never enough...

Never ever, never happy...

Never, never

Never, never, never.

And I fall, fall down, I'm so insecure,

Fall, fall, fall,

Fall...

I am wild, I am dark, I wanna party all night,

but I have no energy.

I have no wish to slap around.

I just want to shout, cry and dance & be heard.

Am I all right?

Some say I am sinner and a saint with a proud and arrogant gait.

Touch me now and you'll see,

you'll know what I mean,

I'm woman without a fate.

I'm just a control freak.

So confident and so assured...

A great façade and everybody falls for it.

Perhaps to some, I may seem haughty or proud.

But come close and you will find

I am warm and sweet in one

Alas, that there's more to me than that...

Sweet, bitter, strong and dark... Yea!

Yea, like the chocolate,

All spiced up by the ego of desires,

Of which a thousand roads

And traffic jams come crushing

In my head all 24/7,

So far from heaven...

Heaven, heaven,

Heaven, heaven, heaven...

And I fall, fall down, so bitterly

Fall, fall, fall

And I fall, fall down, I'm so insecure

Fall, fall, fall!

Trapped in the mind of material illusions

So afraid to be out of control

Million words spinning round in the circles

Lost, I fall, Ah!

I wanna pray, but I can't remember all the words

Too many words. Too many empties,

Too many words. Too many thoughts

Too many words. Too many doubts.... Ha, ha!
