

SATURDAY MORNING

I'm awake now
We were promised a sunny day.
There is no hope in the clouds.

I can hear you calling my name
Already up for an hour...

It's a Saturday morning, ah ha!
The week is over
And I open my eyes and see your face
As you kiss me well - Good morning!

Good morning, darling, come, come here!

Come keep me warm, my love
Give me a little longer
Give me two minutes more
Let's put the time on hold
Sing me a song you like
And we will sing together
I want this moment now
To last forever...

You're looking at me with your big green eyes
I know so well the message...
There is no way we are staying in bed
You firmly need your coffee.

It's a Saturday morning, ah ha!
The week is over...
We're out on our way to the nearest café
to get a bite'n some coffee.

Yea! It's time for your coffee!

I love to walk around
Under the sun or rain
As long as you are near
We'll always find the way.
So many little things that make our days shining,
Together they are sweeter
You make your girl so happy.
Yea, Ah!... Ah!..

I wanna celebrate
Under the sun or rain
To celebrate the day
And our life together.
I sing a song I love.
Let's sing together
And make this moment now
To last forever...

I sing a song I like
Let's sing together
And make this moment now
To last forever...

Yeah! Ah!
Ah!

I love you baby!
