

TELL ME

Can you tell me
What it means to live?
Can you tell me
What it means to love?

Tell me now
Where I can find love.
Tell me now
Where I can find hope.

Wanna know where to go from here?
Travel on...
Is the path all clear?

On this way
How can I stay safe
On this path
To be brave.

Stolen moments from long ago
On my mind
Love that's gone...
All that's been left
All that's been left untold...

Look around
As the life goes on.
Time of change,
I must follow on.

Wanna know
How I can be strong
Leave the past
Where it belongs.

Stolen moments from long ago
On my mind
Love that's gone...

I hear his voice in the night of my heart
Within the fragments of time
Afraid to fall, I'm searching for light
The time has come to move on...

Stolen moments from long ago
On my mind
Love that's gone...

Stolen hope, stolen love
Fallen hope
Stolen love
Stolen time
Ah!

Ah! Ah!
Ah, Tell Me!
